

Alzheimer's Hospice Services

Hospices are for people who have a limited amount of time to live, such as six months or less. The hospice workers focus on relieving the patient's pain and anxiety. He will be treated with the utmost care and kindness.

The National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization

1731 King Street, Ste 100

Alexandria, VA 22314

nhpco.org

1-703-837-1500

1-800-646-6460 (Solutions Center)

Caring Connections

caringinfo.org

1-800-658-8898

Provides help with end-of-life decisions, advance directives and legal matters by state.

State agencies on aging can also give you information about Alzheimer's and refer you to local support groups. Ask the nurse how to locate your state agency.

Ask your nurse for information about Hospice services.

